my dear berthia, you ran away and left me alone. had to start all over again. im sure we have both made new friends and our lives proceed in different directions, but toward the same goal; HAPPINESS. ive found my share in people like yourself. i am aware of the fact that i am very lax in writing you letters and all that bull shit, but you know the only god damn letters i used to write were the ones i helped you write to all your boyfriends!! so that explains that. (at this moment ill ask you to forgive me profanity hehe) im still running around like a chicken with my head cut off but that is the only way i can be happy. with lots of fun and lots of guys, but i know you know what i mean. believe it or not, i am failing typing, after a year i still type 29 words with 19 errors. sister honora is passing me in english cause she's cool & miss giacondino gave up on us in physiology and physical science way back in november. you thought you used to ditch a lot, ha, you should see it this year. you would die! eva is still a brain & fun anyway she sends regards. nanci says you better watch yourself & not get in trouble! ha ha, clima and dore miss you too and ask me how you are. they say you are as beautiful as ever, i showed them your grad picture. edwin came over & still comes around from time to time. i remembered you to him. he says hi. so does andrea (the bitch woman) and glenn (who you wouldn't recognize now) and all his friends send love. loretto just ain't the same rowdy place without you. i also see, that you still only associate with very foxy lookin' chicks, (ROXANN) well at any rate this slop i made in your book i hope makes up for my laziness in the past. i love you still, keep getting it on → (see pic)

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
 Hail Loretto, white and blue.
 Happiness and honor cherished
 Faith and hope we've found in you.

Memories of thee will ever keep us loyal and true, And our friendships found within thee
 Will remain as gifts from you.
 Victory will find us noble
 In defeat courageous too.
 Hail to thee - our Alma Mater
 Hail Loretto, white and blue.

The Senior Class
 of
 Our Lady of Loretto
 High School
 Presents
 The Lauretana 1974

In the mind of Loretto
there is a door ever opening
a page ever turning
a bell ever ringing
a room ever being walked into pencils ever writing
and eyes ever reading

But in the heart of Loretto
there is a girl ever becoming a woman
a teacher ever leading her students toward the light of understanding people ever touching people
with their hearts ever joining to keep Loretto's heart pulsating
with the flame of love
ever on . . . on . . . on

With this in mind, we the Senior Class of 1974 dedicate this yearbook to "Loretto"—heart and mind.

A new trophy case contains symbols of victory from the beginning until now.

The biology room is Lab 2 now. This was once the cooking classroom

Lorettes enjoy
having a

as have all Lorettes before them.

The faces
and the uniforms
are different.
All else is
the same.

The setting is the same.

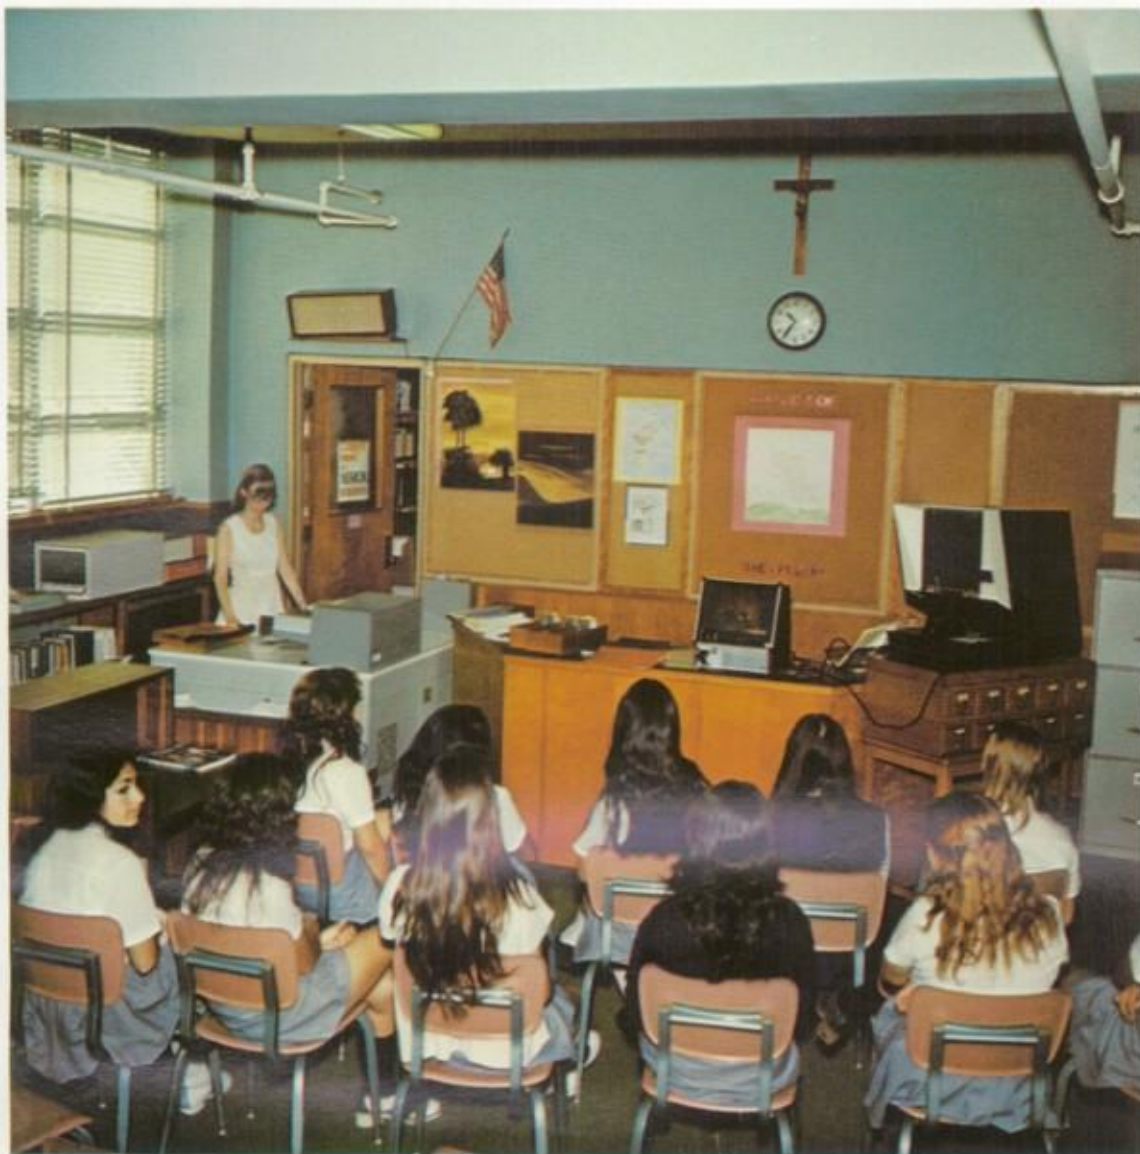

This shows
how one
of the trophies
was won.

The biology class was in lab 3.

This is a class from Loretto's past. Many girls have studied, and still study in these rooms.

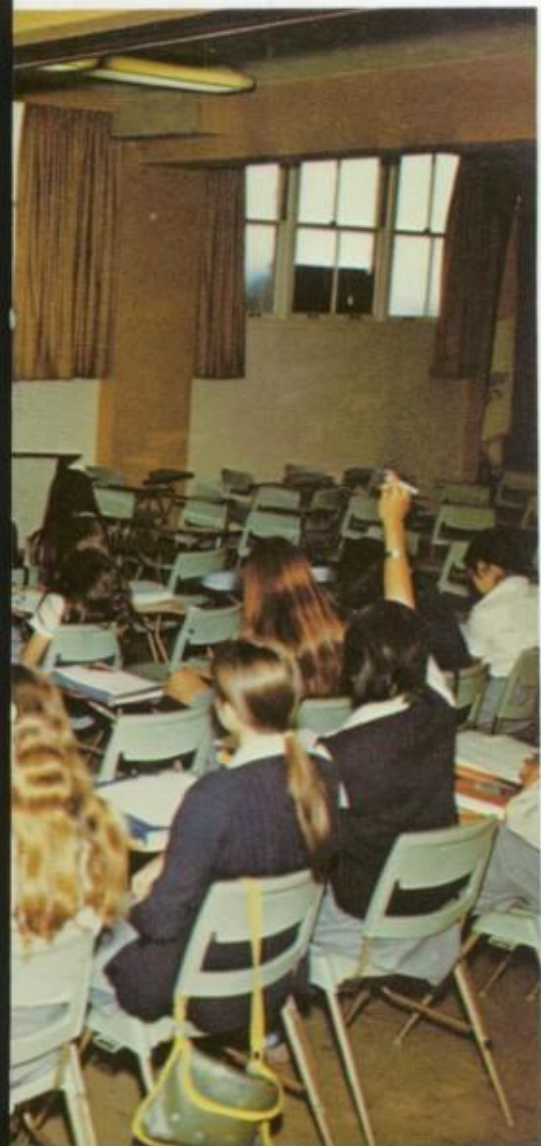

The library—

Questions are answered. Classes go on. The Social Hall is a classroom for several classes
each day.

These are business students of today. Many girls have learned the same skills and have gone forth to make us proud.

The library—a place of study and of enjoyment—then and now.

Study in Room 104-now a language lab and curriculum center

The art room has been a center of creativity since Loretto opened.

Lab. 3 is now a classroom for students of English and French.

This is Loretto. The Silver Years have seen some changes. The trees are tall. Bleachers were added sometime. The girls come and then leave as young women. This is Loretto.

THE LORETTO STORY

It started as a vision in the mind of James Francis, Cardinal, McIntyre, who started a series of diocesan schools with Our Lady of Loretto.

It was February 21, 1949 when groundbreaking ceremonies signified Loretto's birth.

Here, Loretto has all the attributes of youth. Fresh paint, a grassy terrace, and bleachers were not yet in existence.

Even the trees were fragile saplings and an overall newness was evident.

The vision was fast becoming reality as the building of the school became a joint effort among His Eminence; the Superintendent of Schools, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick J. Dignan, Loretto's pastor, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Raymond J. O'Flaherty, the Presentation Sisters Mother General, M. Carthagh and the assistant Superior General, Sr. M. Attracta. Thus the prayers were said, and the plan was laid.

now complete.

Today because of Cardinal Timothy Manning
the vision continues.

This is a scene
from Loretto's
past.

The girls are now part of
other scenes.

Loretto is much
the same.

Other girls feel
at home here.

In time, they,
too, will go
forth as young women.

For this Silver
Year, they are
the Now-Loretto.

This is the Freshman Class. They look forward to three years at Loretto. They are proud of being in the right place at the right time and of being able to open their lockers.

Clubs, plays, activities, self-government—these are the bright threads of school life.

Many actresses have walked across Loretto's stage. Many girls have wielded the gavel of authority. Many girls have served others. Many girls have cheered their teams to victory.

Loretto is proud of all of them.

Loretto will always remember the "big productions." Thanks to the efforts of Mr. Albert Borrelli and other faculty members, the spring plays remain a source of pride for all Lorettes.

goes deep . . .

Should you want a hand to hold,
Mine is there with you,

Remember . . . mine is there."

*"We've got to have friends."
The Class of 1975*

Loretto,

As time goes on, we've realized just how much you mean to us. Now that this year has come and gone, we've learned to grow together as one . . .

We congratulate the Classics of '74 and wish them the best of luck in all they do.

To Sister Rosalie who has been with us throughout this year and who has shown us how to care, love, and appreciate others in a special way. Thank you for being that unique person we've needed for so long and we wish you all joy in your future days.

To Sister Adele, thank you for taking the responsibility of breaking the news to us of the departure of the Sisters of the Presentation from Loretto.

To the Sisters of our School, as we look ahead to our Senior Year, thoughts of the past will remind us of the times we had together, of the love and understanding given us by you; and of the knowledge shared between us. Thank you for being part of our lives. We wish you our love.

All this would never have been possible if it weren't for you, Loretto. Thank you for teaching us that.

To laugh often and much, to win the respect and affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and to endure the trial of false friends, to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others, to leave the world a bit better whether a healthy garden patch or a redeemed social condition, to know a life has breathed easier because you lived. This is to have succeeded.
